DAVID B. DRAPER

David B. Draper was born in the early 1970s. Long walks in the woods of his childhood must have influenced his love of fauna and flora and filled his imagination with a world of creatures to whom he has given form through his pen and watercolour paintbrush. He devotes all his time to drawing and imagining new characters.

Hazelnut Alert!

Geraldine Collet - Sébastien Chebret

When others are in danger, rather than not saying anything, you must speak up and help out! This is the lesson that Squirrel learns. When the wolf arrives in the woods, Squirrel doesn't alert anyone since he is not in danger. But when the wolf has finished eating all the animals in the woods, there is no one left to help Squirrel as he confronts the famished wolf.

A smart and effective text for understanding how to fight harassment, learn to be courageous, and develop a sense of responsibility.
